

Marriage Mediation Questionnaire

1. Describe when your marriage was happy.
 - a. What was the behavior of your spouse that made it happy?
 - b. What was your behavior which made it happy?
2. How did children (or not having children) impact your marriage?
3. When did the marriage start to go downhill?
4.
 - a. What are your spouses good qualities for strengths?
 - b. What are your good qualities or strengths?
5.
 - a. What are the things about your spouse that you find difficult to deal with?
 - b. What would your spouse say are the difficult things for him/her to deal with about you?

6. Describe how you make family decisions.

7. On a scale of 1 – 10 with 1 being least satisfactory and 10 being most satisfactory please rate the satisfaction of the following areas of your marriage:
 - a. money
 - b. sex
 - c. children
 - d. time spent as a couple
 - e. sharing of long term goals and values
 - f. communication

8. What would you say is the most pressing problem in your marriage right now?

9.
 - a. What do you think you can do to improve this problem area?
 - b. What do you think your spouse can do to improve this problem area?

10. What are your hopes for your marriage?